The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to maintain a stable currency. This has led to a loss of confidence in the government and a consequent decline in the value of the national currency. The second is the fact that the
 maintain a stable political system. This has led to a loss of confidence in the government and a consequent decline in the value of the national currency. The third is the fact that the government has been unable to maintain a stable economic system. This
 in the government and a
 of the national currency.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a single column across the page. The script is dense and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a form of early modern European cursive. There are several lines of text, with some words or phrases written in a larger, bolder script, possibly indicating a title or a section heading. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including discoloration and small dark spots.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, spanning the width of the page. The text is arranged in approximately 10 lines. There are two small dark spots or holes visible on the page, one near the center and another slightly to the right.
